

POEMS by Robert Fischer

Thank You 2003

TO ALL SERVICE PERSONNEL

I remember learning about social grace,
A “thank you,” was the least one could do.
In most of the cases, this may be right,
But surely, it’s not always true.

Are there deeds that transcend all of the rest,
that rank right at the top
Is there is a way to acknowledge these feats.
for the bravest, the cream of the crop.

I searched by mind for appropriate words,
and found nothing of value to say
So I closed my eyes, and asked Our Lord, and then I started to pray.

Heavenly Father, watch over our troops.
And bring them home when this ends.
I pray this, for the many husbands and wives.
and all of there family and friends.

For all of our heros, all races, all creeds,
regardless of gender or choice.
hear the words that come from our hearts,
Let the world echo our voice.

